

The Center for Educational Effectiveness

Eric Price
Coach/Advisor

info@effectiveness.org • (425) 283-0384

Experience

Educational career covering over 25 years as an instructor and administrator from kindergarten to graduate level students. Current Ph.D. candidate at Washington State University in Math and Science Education and Adjunct Professor for Washington State University, Walla Walla University and Lewis and Clark State College (topics included: classroom management, elementary math, reading and writing K-8, and reading and writing assessment).

- Elementary and Middle School Principal
 - Coaching principals and central office leaders
 - Writing and evaluating several large federal grants (Teaching American History Grant, Rural Library Grant, etc.)
 - Representing ESD 123 in Washington State's CARC (Curriculum Advisory Review Committee)
 - Implementing and supporting Social Emotional Learning structure, professionally developed by Dr. Greg Benner, University of Alabama
 - PBIS Northwest featured presenter for multiple years
 - Developing member of WASL (Washington Assessment of Student Learning) Goal 1 (reading, writing, and listening) 7th grade
 - Developing a criteria-based interview and hiring process for K-12 educators
-
- Director of Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment
 - Initiating and developing Professional Learning Communities for entire district
 - Adopting all district instructional resources
 - Developing district common formative assessments
 - Overseeing all state assessments
 - Leading district public relations
 - Writing and overseeing multiple state/federal programs and grants
 - Participating in negotiations and labor relations
 - Leading ongoing district professional development initiatives
 - Planning and implementation consultant for private sector
 - Implementing and supporting PBIS (Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports) at multiple schools
 - BA in History, Robert D. Clark Honors College, University of Oregon, Master of Arts in Teaching, Pacific University

NEED MORE INFORMATION?

425.283.0384
info@effectiveness.org
www.effectiveness.org