

The Center for Educational Effectiveness

Steven Dahl, M.Ed.

Director of Professional Learning &
Content Development

steven@effectiveness.org • (425) 534-5883

Experience

Educational career spanning 25 years in public education, private sector ed-tech, and nationwide professional development service providers. Professional roles include district and regional school administrator, classroom special education teacher, Adjunct Faculty at Western Washington University's Woodring College of Education, consultant and online course developer, Board Director of local educational nonprofit, and career exploration curriculum developer.

- District and School Administrator (14 years)
  - Oversaw implementation of grants and operational funds exceeding 50 million dollars
  - Led 3 county juvenile justice facilities and 4 behavior programs simultaneously in Washington State
  - Operational implementation of diversity, equity & inclusion principles and practices
- Categorical Program Director
  - Excelled at maximizing academic and social emotional learning outcomes through carefully braided funding aligned with MTSS, RTI and PBIS best practices
- Classroom Special Education Teacher

- Adjunct Faculty at Western Washington University's Woodring College of Education
- Consultant and online course developer
- Board Director of local educational non-profit
- Career Exploration Curriculum Director

Education:

M.Ed. Exceptional Children, Western Washington University (WWU), BA, Philosophy, WWU, P-12 Principal Certificate, WWU, K-12 Special Education Teaching Certificate, WWU

NEED MORE INFORMATION?

425.283.0384

info@effectiveness.org

www.effectiveness.org